STINGERS OPEN TRAINING CAMP
FACE OTTAWA GEE GEES IN EXHIBITION MATCH SUNDAY, AUG. 30-1:00 PM

Head Coach Pat Sheahan welcomed 84 players to the Stinger football training camp as Concordia prepares for their 1992 Ontario-Quebec Interuniversity Football Conference season.

Despite the loss of All-Canadians Jean-François Héroux and Jacques Moreau and Ron Aboud, the O-QIFC's career leading passer, Sheahan feels that the Stingers will once again be a strong contender for league and national honours.

Ranked tenth in the preseason polls, the Stinger training camp roster includes 34 veterans, and Sheahan expects strong competition for each starting spot. François Trudel, who has understudied in Aboud's shadow the last three seasons, has a powerful arm and appears ready to step in as the team's number one signal caller. Last year Trudel proved he can move the Concordia offense, completing 24 of 44 passes for 387 yards and 1 touchdown in a back-up role. The former Marie Victorin standout will have a strong complement of wide receivers to throw to - including Eric McLellan (9-113-1TD) and Jean-François Joyal. Joyal, who missed all but one of the team's nine games returns to the form that earned him the OQIFC Rookie of the Year in 1989. Rookies Uzo Ubani (Vanier College), Mark Montreuil (North Shore Broncos) and Matt Carlyle (South Grenville Giants) will bolster the receiving corps. The backfield will be led by veterans Dio Mastrodomenico (126 yds, 5.3 ave.), Robert Pinazza (199 yds., 3.6 ave.), Paul Quick, David Glube, Kevin Norris and Jamie Dugdale. Former Champlain Cougar Marco Ciamarro will add speed and toughness to the backfield.

All-conference guard Fred Marquette, in the long line of great offensive linemen produced by Concordia, will anchor a big, quick line. Joining him will be veteran Bill Venieris and some outstanding first year line players. Angelo Filosa (6'3, 280) and John Petrella (6'0, 245) of the Bol D'or Champion Vanier Cheetahs will join the Stinger line-up in 92. Jeff Peters (6'2, 240) from Hamilton and Dave LaVasseur (6'3, 250) of Peterborough will also wear maroon, white and gold this year. Peter Pozar, (6'4, 245) late of the Quebec Jr. Champion St. Hubert Rebels will add size and depth to Concordia University's O-line.
